Dedication

To Mr. Sechrest, we the Senior Class of 1959 dedicate this fifteenth edition of the Mon-Echo. Through his untiring efforts and patience he has become a friend to all.

During the two short years that he has been with us he has proven a capable leader and has endeared himself not only to students, faculty, and parents, but also to our entire community.

We heartily thank him for his understanding and guidance, especially in this, our last year at M. H. S.

Class Prophecy

As I was rummaging through the laboratory of Monticello School, I opened a bottle of chloroform by mistake. I inhaled the fumes and I fell into a dreamful sleep. I had a very mysterious dream of the future.

I dreamed of all my classmates and our school days together. I could see them then as they carried on their life work.

I saw Elizabeth Earley sitting at a desk working very hard. Oh yes, now I know. She's working at Western Electric and suddenly she looks up. Who is that handsome young man she is talking to. Of course, it's her boss man Buddy Gordon, who is doing very well at Western Electric.

There are also other girls in the office. I recognize them now. They are Jean Wray, Doris Crews, and Charlotte Rumley. They seem to be liking their work just fine.

And now the scene changes to a large school in Boone. Yes it's Anne Tinsley who has finally finished her college and married that millionaire she always dreamed about. She's carrying out her career of teaching.

And now I'm in a large store and that girl sure looks familiar. I know it's Carolyn Hawkins and she's working hard at Sears and Roebuck to buy a white Cadillac.

And who are those two farmers who just walked in. Of course, it's Alfred Kernodle and Luther Tucker and they're talking to the head salesman, Bobby Joe Roberts.

I blinked my eyes, and I was on a baseball field in Los Angeles watching the game. The stars, yes, they're Dillard and Thomas McGee, and the manager is Jimmy Smith.

And then the view changed I was in a doctor's office. The doctor, that's Wendell Brande, who is doing quite well as a psychiatrist. As for me, I am his nurse.

Prophet-Louise Andrews

Article I

- Section I - We, the class of 1959, leave to our school our appreciation for many fond memories and our years of learning.
- Section II - To Mr. Sechrest we dedicate our annual.
- Section III - To Mrs. Streetman, our homeroom teacher, and the entire faculty, we bestow our thanks for their patience and guidance.
- Section IV - To the Juniors we leave all the responsibilities of the title Seniors.

Article II

- Section I - I, Alfred Kernodle, will my love for new cars to Kenneth Martin.
- Section II - I, Elizabeth Earley, leave my talkative ways to Betty Apple.
- Section III - I, Dillard McGee, will my ability to play basketball to Frankie Bishop.
- Section IV - To Janice Swaney, I, Anne Tinsley will my flirty ways in hopes she gets lots of boys.
- Section V - I, Wendell Brande, leave my good grades to Linda Mabe.
- Section VI - I, Buddy Gordon, will the sixth row at the North Drive-In to Marths Lewis.
- Section VII - I, Jimmy Smith, leave the Summit Shopping Center to Kenneth Warren, happy hunting.
- Section VIII - To Ervine Brown, I, Charlotte Rumley leave my many study halls.
- Section IX - I, Thomas McGee, will my ability to get along with girls to Kenneth O'Bryant.
- Section X - I, Jean Wray, will my friendly smile to Carole Hackett.
- Section XI - I, Carolyn Hawkins, leave my ability to play basketball to Shirley Wyrick.
- Section XII - I, Bobby Roberts, will my chevrolet to Rodney Smith hoping he will keep the cops busy.
- Section XIII - I, Luther Tucker, leave my quiet ways to Douglas Wagoner in hopes he will use them.
- Section XIV - I, Louise Andrews, will my height to Lois Andrews.
- Section XV - I, Doris Crews, will my "dancing shoes" to Joyce Andrews.

Class History

As I look back in the past, I can see us as first graders. That first day in school was a very exciting day.

As we grew older, we began to take little trips and join in school activities.

By and by, we lost some of our classmates, but there were new ones to take their places.

Our grammar days went by too quickly.

We turned a new page when we went into high school. In the ninth grade, our homeroom teacher was Mr. Jack Phillips. The class officers were as follows: President, Jerry Smith; Vice-President, Charlotte Rumley; secretary, Louise Andrews; treasurer, Wendell Brande; and reporter, Jean Wray.

As we went from the ninth grade to the tenth, we were very proud of last year's work. For our homeroom teacher we had Mr. Howard Jones. Our officers in this grade were: president, Bubby Gordon; vice-president, Jerry Wilson; secretary, Charlotte Rumley; treasurer, Jimmy Smith, and reporter, Jean Wray.

In the eleventh grade, we had to work hard to make money for a Junior-Senior Banquet. Our class sold scrap metal, papers, magazine subscriptions, and gave a play. For our homeroom teacher, we had Mrs. Dianne Hopkins up until Christmas, and then Mrs. Mary Ellen Mardis took over. Mrs. Mardis and Mr. Sechrest were our play directors for "Girl Shy." Although we did work hard for our banquet, we had lots of fun. Our officers were: Thomas McGee, president, Elizabeth Earley, secretary, Buddy Gordon, vice-president, and Jean Wray, treasurer.

For our twelfth grade officers they are: president, Thomas McGee; vice-president, Dillard McGee; secretary, Elizabeth Earley; and treasurer, Alfred Kernodle. Mrs. Streetman is our homeroom teacher. The name of our play for this year is "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works." By selling many things, we are trying to make up money to go to Washington, D. C.

Very soon we will graduate, leaving all of our friends behind.

As we walk down the isle on graduation night, we will have many memories to keep with us. We will thank Mr. Sechrest, the teachers and our parents for making these past twelve years the best years of our lives.
